

ERIE WOMEN'S FUND

EMPOWERING WOMEN & FAMILIES

If you would like to support efforts to combat the effects of systemic racism in Erie County, consider a gift to one or more of the organizations below. These were suggested by our Education Session moderator and panelists.

Note this is by no means an exhaustive list. For more information on these and other worthy nonprofits doing this important work, contact Susannah Weis Frigon at The Erie Community Foundation, sfrigon@eriecommunityfoundation.org.

Boys and Girls Club
www.eriebgc.com/what-we-do

NAACP
www.naacperie.org

The Crime Advocacy Center
www.cvcerie.org

Opened Eyes – Brandon Wiley www.opened-eyes.com/about

Eagle's Nest Academy of Distinction www.eriesd.org/domain/2724

Pennsylvania Humanities Council pahumanities.org

Erie Black Wall Street – Kyra Taylor www.eriesblackwallstreet.org/team

SafeNet
www.safeneterie.org/how-we-help

Erie City Mission, Urban University or the Homeless Unit www.eriecitymission.org/our-programs

Sarah A Reed Children's Center, School Based Programs – SELF ****
www.sarahreed.org/programs-services

Ivies on The Lake
www.akamunuomega.org/ivies-on-the-lake/

Second Harvest Food Bank
nwpafoodbank.org

Mercy Center for Women
www.mcwerie.org

* 2020 Recipient of $1000 EWF Holiday Grant, as recommended by Panelists of EWF Systemic Racism Educational Series. The holiday grants were made using dollars that would have been spent on our Holiday Gathering.